ABSTRACT

The approximately 100 items listed in this selective bibliography on the teaching of English are easily available through booksellers in Great Britain but do not include any textbooks specifically prepared for use in schools. Items are listed under nine categories: general, books and reading, language, talking, writing, poetry, drama, primary schools, and periodicals. (JM)

Select Bibliography on the Teaching of English

In preparing this list, we have tried to include only books fairly easily available through booksellers in Great Britain. As a result, none of the huge and valuable periodical literature is included. Neither will you find any text-books directly prepared for use in schools. But many of the books on the list contain their own considerable bibliographies, in which information of this kind can be found.

We have also tried to keep the list to about a hundred items, to avoid cumbersomeness and expense in postage. As a result, it is highly selective and still, although several of us have been concerned, rather subjective. It is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive or definitive.
